

Apprenticeships in

Retail

Intermediate // Advanced

Apprenticeships in retail will provide you with a diverse range of skills to support working in a retail environment. You will gain skills that will be transferable to all retail companies, thus offering many career opportunities. The Advanced Apprenticeship is designed to help you develop specific retail skills and help you gain relevant management skills. At Advanced level you will specialise into one of three Retail pathways; Retail Sales Professional, Retail Management, Retail Visual Merchandising

What qualifications, experience or skills do I need?

The Intermediate Apprenticeship is suited to individuals new to working within the retail sector. At Intermediate level, you should have excellent communication and team working skills, whilst at Advanced level, you should be able to demonstrate that you have unrivalled communication skills. At Advanced level, you should have experience of working within the retail sector and knowledge of the skills required to support working in a retail environment.

What is the expected duration?

Intermediate – 12 months minimum

Advanced – 15 months

How will I be assessed?

You will be assessed in the workplace through observations, witness testimonies and personal statements, overseen by an Assessor. This information will be incorporated into an e-portfolio giving evidence of competency in your job role.

Progression from this Apprenticeship and future prospects

When you achieve the Intermediate Apprenticeship you can develop your knowledge and skills further by progressing to study the Advanced Apprenticeship. When you have achieved the Advanced Apprenticeship you could improve your career prospects further by studying leadership and management qualifications.
